

BENNINGTONWORKS

SUNDAY, APRIL 10, 2016

SESSION 4: 3:30–4:30 PM | CAPA LOBBY

LANGUAGES IN ACTION

Students working in a range of fields including Chinese, French, Italian, Japanese, and Spanish will present their original research, community outreach, study abroad, and lives after Bennington.

CHINESE | Mai Tran, Kagan Marks

Theses: “Analyzing the works of Chinese authors as commercial phenomena in the U.S. publishing market” and “Calligraphy in China”

FRENCH | Brendan McPherson, Ornella Njoya

Theses: “Louis Malle’s Au Revoir, les enfants and French public debate on the Holocaust” and “Development in Africa”

ITALIAN | Lucia Pompetti, Prashansa Taneja

Advanced Work: Love in Italian Literature and Film

JAPANESE | Tommy Melvin

Senior work: Contemporary Japanese Poetry Translation

SPANISH | Patrick Harnett-Marshall

Senior work: Colonial literature, theater, and literary theory

LANGUAGE TEACHING | Michaela Milligan

Teaching Chinese to 6th graders in North Bennington

GANAS | Jocelyn Salcedo, Ivett Martinez

Ganas promotes connections between Bennington College students and members of the Latino/a and migrant population in our area

STUDY ABROAD | Amy Dobson, Interim Study Abroad Advistor

Amy will be available to talk about study abroad opportunities

For the full schedule visit www.bennington.edu/bennington-works