Ethan:

1. -mission statement+ goals from before long weekend

Voted on it during first five minutes of meeting here, then all walked to event together, gave them our demands

8:30 on Tuesday, we'd like to be there on time (9)

-have a conversation with students (mission on students), like a government

-we are interested and passionate about food and sustainability on campus, we should get a feel from everyone on campus 8:30+ Updates, finalize on mission statement

-express that

-bloggers+ writers about it. We really care about ____ and just voted on our mission statement

Mission statement now: weaning it down now

Format of meeting

-buttons this weekend

Edit it with name attached by comments, we'd just vote on it online

-brainstorming of mission for vision and purpose now generating raw ideas so we can create a cohesive mission statement

Mission

-to provide the community with an accessible and conscious food culture.

-notes, food culture may not be common vocabulary

-what kind of sentence should we have

-we have the right to eat cooperatively and environmentally.

-create a food community

-create a community fostering conscious food culture and sustainability within bennington

-Name and what you would like, building off the next person's

Suggestions of words

-have a system where people write a suggestion by it, asterisks

-next week we can decide on the ones with the most asterisks on them + edit them accordingly

-providing vs. fostering, exchanging, deciding
