

Bennington College
October 11, 1940

For the College Week next Tuesday, Oct. 15

Following Dr. Polanyi's series of lectures which ended Thursday evening, there will be a related series of lectures dealing with American political problems. Although related to the background created by Dr. Polanyi, this series will also have some reference to the problems being discussed in connection with the current national political campaign. The dates and speakers for the series are as follows:

Tuesday, October 22 - Mr. Truman - The Anatomy and Use of Political Parties
Thursday, October 24 - ~~Mr. Jones - Economic Tendencies and Issues~~
Speaker + title to be announced
Monday, October 28th - Mr. Leigh - Centralization and Dictatorship
Thursday, October 31st - Mr. Brockway - Politics and Foreign Policy.

In addition to this series, there will be a political party rally under the auspices of a student committee Monday, November 4th, at five o'clock, the day before the national election. This will be held in the Recreation Building.

On election night the Recreation ^{Council} ~~Building~~ is planning a party to hear the election returns which will be reported and analyzed by Mr. Truman and Mr. Leigh. There will be entertainment between returns.

Harriet - please return this when through with it.
Thanks,

FHB