Mr. Edwin A. Park,
Old Bennington, Vermont.

My dear Park:

I have been trying to get a chance to write to you to tell you how much I enjoyed our little visit to Bennington, and how much I was impressed with the beginnings that have been made at the College and the fine work you are doing there, with your associate, the sculptor, whose name I forget.

There is one thing that I intended to suggest to you, and that is the desirability of your patenting the drawing chair which you have designed for your pupils. It seems to me that this is an admirable idea and one that would have very wide use, and there is no reason why you should not benefit by it, getting some supply house to handle the chairs on a royalty basis. It occurs to me also, that if the chair could be made to hinge where it comes together it would have an added value for storing in schools.

Yours in haste,

FAW/fh
