

Recreation Council Minutes for February 27, 19~~29~~⁷⁰

The meeting was called to order by Eloise Bishop, Chairman protempore.

Those present were; Eloise Bishop, Sylvia Thayer, Susan Winter, Phyllis Epstein, Margaret Brush, Florence Booker, Susan Hedge, Cynthia Jenkinson, Marie Christopher, Mr. Chapman, Lucille Kron (for Minette Hunsiker), Charlotte Watson (for Jane Holmes).

Those absent were; Minette Hunsiker, Jane Holmes, Jeanne Michaels, Jane Stilwell, Margaret Twichell, Mr. Park, Miss Miller.

Milk Lists

The Council members were reminded to hand in the lists of preferences of chocolate or plain milk to Miss Foresman.

Transportation to Movies

Taxi lists for the movies will be continued this term.

Athletic Committee

Fencing: Mr. Glass will be unable to teach fencing this term. Chandler Coles was suggested as an alternative, or, if possible, the fencing teacher from Williams for perhaps one day a week.

Skiing: There will be a ski-race at Woodford on Sunday at 2:30 sponsored by Mr. Whittinghill. Only Bennington townspeople and college students can participate. The college bus will be utilized. Mr. Whittinghill will also teach on Wednesday behind Mr. Newcomb's house.

Non-Drama Workshop

The execution of this project will be left up to the next Council but the ~~present~~ present one will encourage groups to arrange acts and publicize it.

New Members

A list of requisites was suggested so that people could vote more objectively on new Recreation Council members. The following were included:

- interest in one particular activity
- willingness to work
- enthusiasm
- ability to persuade people to join activities

Standing Rules

It was suggested that each committee head keep a running list of possible inclusions in the list of standing rules.

Dance Committee

The tentative dates for the Spring Formal are May 18, or April 30, and for the Informal, April 30 or March 15.

Respectfully submitted,

Eloise Bishop
