The second meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bennington College Cooperative Store was held on Wednesday, June 3rd, 1942, in room 75 of the Barn at 3:30 pm. Those present were: Judith Barnwell, Patricia Crocker, Irene Crosby, Betty Harrington, Judith Knapp, chairman, Miss Jones, Miss Stevens, Mr. Menderhausen. Those absent were; Mr. Smith, Catherine Heerman, Mrs. Woodlock.

Rummage Sale Report: The Rummage Sale report was read by the chairman. It was decided by the Board that the Rummage Sale disposals should be given to the Red Cross.

Beauty Parlor Survey report: The Beauty Parlor report read by the chairman. It was decided that Laura St. Pierre Millis would be re-appointed for service in the Beauty Parlor for next year.

Selling of Octet Records: The selling of the Octet records through the store by Ann Whiteley was explained by the Chairman. It was decided by the Board that since the seller would not make a profit in selling the records, the advertising could be done through the Store.

Budget for 1942-1943: The Budget for 1942-43 was read by Miss. Stevens and approved by the Board. It was voted and passed that the gasoline pump for next year should be discontinued.

Revision of Book Pricing Policy: A revision of a new book pricing policy was presented to the Board and left to be discussed further in a future meeting of the Board.
Proposal of picture renting: A proposal to set up a picture renting agency in the Store was presented to the Board. After a lengthy discussion it was opposed by the Board.

Extra-Meeting: It was decided by the Board to hold an extra-meeting of the Store Board on Wednesday, June 10th, 1942.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:00 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Patricia Crocker, Secretary
