"FOUR FATHERS" CONCERT

On Thursday evening, October 25th, at 8:30 in the Carriage Barn, there will be a concert for the benefit of the new Bennington Community School (1st through 8th grades).

The program will include, among other things, the Moonlight Sonata played by Lionel Nowak; selections from Rigoletto sung by Leslie Chabay, accompanied by Paul Boepple; and several familiar selections for 'Cello by George Finckel.

Refreshments will be served afterwards. These four men (whose children are pupils in this school) are contributing their musical services.

Tickets are on sale at $1.50 in the Cooperative Store and will also be sold at the door.

POLITICS and POLKAS

Bennington students and Faculty are cordially invited to attend an inter-collegiate political rally at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute on Friday evening, October 26th at 8 o'clock. Round and square dancing will follow a speech on "The Price of Good Government" by New York State's Lt. Gov. Frank C. Moore. The R.P.I. Glee Club will open the program. No admission charge.

Provide your own transportation or approach Solveig Peterson.
