INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL REUNION

Twenty-five of the overseas students who spent last Summer on the College Campus are expected back for a weekend reunion on June 12th. Students are expected to arrive on Friday afternoon and will remain until Sunday afternoon.

On their arrival, students will be housed either in the Student residence halls or the Carriage Barn. The Carriage Barn will be converted into a men's dormitory for the weekend. Friday evening they will have dinner with the Summer School Faculty, and Saturday afternoon they will have tea with the Bennington families who acted as hosts to them during the final week of their stay here last Summer. They will have their other meals in the regular Dining Rooms.

The Summer School hopes Bennington students will welcome them, join them at meals, and talk with them. Anyone who is especially interested is asked to get in touch with Mrs. DeGray.
