NOTICE: TO COUNSELORS OF SENIORS OF MARKED ABILITY AND PROMISE

Woodrow Wilson Fellowships are designed to encourage particularly able young men and women to go into college and university teaching. One hundred and fifty Fellowships, covering one year's graduate work, will be awarded for the year 1955-56. No student can propose herself, but must be nominated by her counselor (or any faculty member). The nomination must be mailed by NOVEMBER 15. It should evaluate the nominee but need not be elaborate. Thereafter the Regional Chairman of the program carries on directly with the nominee who would eventually enter into national competition (if successful in competition with candidates from five Canadian provinces and four other New England States).

The notice is posted in the Faculty Lounge, and the Barn.

FROM THE PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE

The following is a letter received by the Public Relations Office from Mrs. Esther M. Parmelee, Chairman of the American Red Cross Blood Program for Bennington County:

"To all the Bennington College students who gave blood on November 3rd, our thanks and sincere appreciation for your interest and cooperation. Without you all, we would have been unable to collect the large amount of 167 pints of blood - which made the blood-drawing day such a success".

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

If there are any students interested in working at a ski lodge this winter please get in touch with Mrs. Miller - Extension 315.

The job starts the day before Christmas and continues on through the Non-Resident Term. Mrs. Goodhue of the Elmwood Lodge in Stowe, Vermont, will be on campus today, November 9th, at 12:30 p.m. to interview students.

If you haven't already done so, please report to the Non-Resident Term Office on any job interviews over long weekend.

Will students whose jobs are ALL SET for the winter please notify the Non-Resident Term Office.
