FROM THE DANCE DIVISION

Dance Seminar: Belitt Movies

Three original films in color by Ben Belitt will be shown at the Dance Seminar on Wednesday, April 27th, at 5:00 PM in Barn #1. Two -- "The Palm and the Prism," and "Cycle of Autumn," are described as lyrical divertissements on the Key West and Vermont scenes, and the third, "Mexico Dances," is a record of regional and primitive dance in Central and Southern Mexico. The Community is cordially invited to attend.

No film will be shown this Saturday because of the Drama production.

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES

Bennington Graduate and a painter whose husband is a writer and teacher of literature will offer board and room, possibly a small salary and help in literature and painting, in exchange for some assistance with two girls 9 and 5. These people live in Williamstown now. The summer home is in Franconia, New Hampshire.

A place called THE ROUGH LOBSTER SAND AND SURF CLUB on the Cape wrote that they could use some college students as waitresses, counter-girls, salad girls and salesgirls in their gift shop. Previous experience desirable. Salaries range from $50 per week up, plus room and board. Anyone interested should write immediately to Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Daly, c/o The Rough Lobster, West Yarmouth, Massachusetts.

NEW YORK APARTMENTS

Mrs. Max Pollikoff would like to sub-let an apartment in New York for the summer. It is located at 29 West 65th Street. There are 3 rooms furnished with piano
