THURSDAY, Nov. 8
7:30 p.m.
Tishman

Indian Film: The Householder (100 minutes). This delightful English-language comedy is the story of a shy, young, underpaid Delhi school-teacher who marries and then, little by little, gets to know his young wife during their first year together. The story, derived from the culture of modern, middle-class India, is able to transcend national boundaries and relate to the problems common to young couples everywhere. This is the first of several films to be shown for the "Social Anthropology of India" class. Everyone is welcome.

THURSDAY, Nov. 8
8:00 p.m.

NOTICES:

From Mrs. Shapiro, NRT Office: Any student who has not informed Mrs. Shapiro of his/her NRT plans, please do so now. We want to know about plans relating to jobs as well as for study and individual projects.

We have received literature of the new Outward Bound Programs. Come in and look through it.

If anyone is interested in speaking to Sparky Milliken, Director of the Dartmouth Outward Bound Center, please let Mrs. Shapiro know. Mr. Milliken would like to come to Bennington and show a film, as well as explain more about the Program if enough students are interested.

Notice from the Health Service: The Health Service will give flu shots to members of the college staff, faculty, and administration on Wednesday, November 14 between 12:30 and 2:30 p.m. at a charge of $2.00 per person. Please notify us if you are coming so we will have the material on hand. The Public Health Service recommends that the vaccine be given to "chronically ill patients and to older persons in general." If you have any doubt, why not consult your own physician.

Would whoever borrowed the 35mm. slide projector from Don Raina's office in Dickinson Science Building please return it to him or notify him when it can be returned.

From the Library: Book Sale. The Library will hold a book sale in the front lobby on Wednesday, November 7th, beginning at 11:00 a.m.

Hard covers will go for .25; paperbacks for .10.
