President Frederick Burkhardt
Bennington College
Bennington, Vermont

Dear Fred:

This morning I talked with Walter Hendricks about a meeting of our little group of college presidents. He would be glad to have you meet at Marlboro and I would be glad to have you meet at Goddard.

We thought it might be a good idea to try meeting at Marlboro on October 6th with the expectation that some of the group would be going on to Boston the next day for the inauguration of Brandeis University.

If that doesn't seem like a feasible time for the meeting, we thought it would be a good idea to meet the next week at Goddard. Any day from Monday through Thursday of that week would suit us.

There are some matters having to do with college administration and policy which I would like very much to have discussed at our first meeting because I think the group might be able to make some decisions that would be helpful to all of us.

Will you let me know within the next two or three days which of the above suggestions for meeting is most satisfactory for you? If neither is possible, will you suggest times and places that would be agreeable?

Sincerely yours,

Tim
