

MUSIC IN THE AIR—Composer Henry Brant accompanies tenor Frank Baker as they prepare “Ariettes Oubliees,” a set of songs by Debussy, for performance at tomorrow night’s Faculty Concert at the Bennington College Carriage Barn. The public is invited. No admission will be charged. (Photo—Matthias Tarnay)

Faculty Concert Features Alice Smiley, Violinist

NORTH BENNINGTON—Alice Smiley, teaching replacement for Orrea Pernel who is currently on sabbatical leave, will be heard in tomorrow evening’s faculty concert at the Bennington College Carriage Barn.

A violinist of note, Mrs. Smiley will play the Sonata in A for Piano and Violin, K. 526, by Mozart, “Three Biblical Masks” by Miriam Gideon, and Hindemith’s Sonata in E for Violin and Piano. She will be assisted in these works by Lionel No wak, pianist.

Accompanied by Henry Brant tenor Frank Baker will offer “Ariettes Oubliees,” a set of songs by Claude Debussy. Completing the program, George Finckel, cellist, and Paul Boepple, pianist, will play Sonata in A Minor, the “Arpeggione” by Schubert. The concert will begin at 8:15. The public is invited. No admission will be charged.