

Order of Events

June 5 - 6

Friday:

- 1:00 p.m. Official holiday begins for the weekend.
The library, however, will be open Friday afternoon and evening.
- All cars that belong to residents on the campus must be removed from the two regular parking spaces. The field to the north of the tennis courts and the space by the Sculpture Studio may be used instead. The rule will be in force from 1 o'clock Friday until 6:30 Saturday afternoon.
- 4:00 p.m. Two teas will be served on the lawns between the double student houses for the Seniors and the formally invited guests. Members of the Faculty and Staff are invited also. The Seniors will take their guests to the tea nearest their own houses.
- 6:30 p.m. Supper will be served as usual. To avoid overcrowding ~~the~~ dining-rooms, however, no guest may have dinner at the College unless special permission is obtained from Miss Hait.
- 8:30 p.m. There will be an extra performance of the Theatre Guild Production given in the theatre to which only Seniors and the formally invited guests (those with admission cards) may go.

Saturday:

- 9:00 - 11:30 a.m. Student work will be on exhibit in the following places:
- Painting and Drawing - Front studios, Commons
  - Sculpture - Sculpture Studio
  - Printing - Print shop, Bingham basement
  - Theatre arts - Front halls, 3rd floor, Commons
  - Written work - Library
  - Laboratory work - Science wing of the Barn
- 11:30 a.m. The barn will be closed to all visitors and persons who don't have to be there.
- 11:35 a.m. All roads leading to the flagpole will be closed to automobile traffic. The usual entrance to the College will be closed at the bottom of the hill. All cars arriving after that hour will use the Jennings driveway and will park along the road east of Cricket Hill.
- All guests and members of the Community (except the Seniors) will be ushered to the section of seats reserved for them. Outsiders who have no cards of admission are not entitled to seats. They will have to stand at the back. Small children will be taken care of in the nursery school garden during the ceremony.

- 11:40 a.m. The Seniors will assemble in Mr. Lundberg's room in the Barn to put on their gowns.
- 11:50 a.m. The bell ringers will play for ten minutes.
- 12:00 m. After the clock has struck, the small orchestra will begin the music for the procession which, led by Dr. Kilpatrick and Dr. Leigh, will then walk out of the lower end of the science wing across the quadrangle to the silo base where seats will be reserved for them.
- At the end of the ceremony, when Dr. Kilpatrick has spoken the final word, the orchestra will play the song through once while everybody rises. The song will then be sung through every one joining in, after which the Seniors will walk back down the path and around the east side of the Barn. The signal for the end will be given when Dr. Kilpatrick and Dr. Leigh retire from the silo base directly into the Barn.
- 12:40 p.m. The Seniors will get their diplomas in Dr. Leigh's office. They will then get their refunds from the Cooperative Store in Miss Myra Jones' office. They will leave their costumes in Mr. Lundberg's room.
- 12:45 - 2:30 p.m. Luncheon will be served in the Commons for all the members of the Community and all guests who have cards of admission. The inside stairs will be used to go up, and the front, outside stairs to go down. Faculty, staff, and undergraduate students will be served from the west dining-rooms (the Red and Green); graduates and all outside guests from the east dining-rooms (the Blue and the "Faculty"). The center dining-room and porch will be used to eat in, as also the lounge downstairs and the lawns outside.
