On October 31, 2001 twelve students from Bushwick High School in Brooklyn will be bringing to Bennington their hour-long adaptation of William Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet", performed in combination of Shakespearean English, Spanish and "street". The director (and teacher of the students) is playwright Stephen Haff, who also teaches in the Bennington July Program.

Following the performance will be a question and answer period. This is a unique opportunity for students of Literature, Drama, Spanish, Education, and anyone else interested. The Carriage Barn seats about one hundred.
