Mr. Boebe,

you will perhaps be interested that my husband is to be part of an exhibition at the Fogg Art Museum, Harvard University. The opening is April 20 from 5-7 p.m. It is called Three American Painters including Kenneth Noland, Jules Olitski, and Frank Stella. The paintings will be on view through May 30.

Sincerely,

Andrea Olitsky
Thanks so much for the information about your husband's participation in the Fogg Art Museum show. We'll make note of it in College Week, and I hope to get some attention in the area press.
