

Bennington ACTS Presents:

Immersed | Fostering Community Engagement

A panel conversation with students, staff, faculty and community members looking at the past, present and future of civic engagement in the wider Bennington community.

-2:00pm-3:00pm: Panel Discussion with Audience Q&A

-3:00pm: Introducing the Bennington Community Engagement Resource

-3:15pm: Open Meet & Greet with Community Leaders and Local Organization Representatives

Sunday 11/8/15, 2PM

Bennington College Student Center

This event is free and open to the public.

Bennington ACTS Presents:

Immersed | Fostering Community Engagement

A panel conversation with students, staff, faculty and community members looking at the past, present and future of civic engagement in the wider Bennington community.

-2:00pm-3:00pm: Panel Discussion with Audience Q&A

-3:00pm: Introducing the Bennington Community Engagement Resource

-3:15pm: Open Meet & Greet with Community Leaders and Local Organization Representatives

Sunday 11/8/15, 2PM

Bennington College Student Center

This event is free and open to the public.

PANELISTS:

Tess Morrison

Tess is a senior at Bennington College studying the influence of medical anthropology on public health systems in Latin America. She serves as a house chair, Bennington Wellness peer, Ganas Community Outreach Coordinator, and Sexual Harassment and Misconduct Advisor.

Mickey McGlasson

Mickey came to Bennington in 2013 to serve as an AmeriCorps VISTA. Since completing his VISTA term, he has worked as a Community Planner at the Bennington County Regional Commission, where he supports municipalities and local organizations on a variety of projects related to areas such as: economic development, energy, and transportation.

Sara White

Sara joined Bennington College's Office of Institutional Advancement, a team that leads alumni and philanthropic engagement with the College, and currently serves as Director of Advancement Services and Prospect Management. Additionally, she serves as president of the Bennington County Coalition for the Homeless.

Shannon Schmutz

Shannon completed her undergraduate work at Central Michigan University studying Public Health and Ethics. She then went to the University of Utah to earn her Masters of Education with an emphasis in Student Affairs. She now works at Southern Vermont College as the Civic Engagement Coordinator and Residence Director. She helps create opportunities for students to get involved in the community to spark an interest in being more engaged with the community they are a part of in Bennington.

Robert Ransick

Robert Ransick is an artist, designer and educator. His creative work has been exhibited in both national and international venues including Eyebeam Center for Art and Technology, Exit Art, Storefront for Art and Architecture, The New Museum and at the Palazzo delle Esposizioni in Rome, Italy, among others. He holds a BFA in Photography, with honors, from the School of Visual Arts, an MA in Media Studies from the New School for Social Research and an MBA in Sustainability from Bard College. He is a full-time faculty member at Bennington College where he teaches digital arts and social practices in the arts. Ransick divides his time between New York City and Bennington, VT.

PANELISTS:

Tess Morrison

Tess is a senior at Bennington College studying the influence of medical anthropology on public health systems in Latin America. She serves as a house chair, Bennington Wellness peer, Ganas Community Outreach Coordinator, and Sexual Harassment and Misconduct Advisor.

Mickey McGlasson

Mickey came to Bennington in 2013 to serve as an AmeriCorps VISTA. Since completing his VISTA term, he has worked as a Community Planner at the Bennington County Regional Commission, where he supports municipalities and local organizations on a variety of projects related to areas such as: economic development, energy, and transportation.

Sara White

Sara joined Bennington College's Office of Institutional Advancement, a team that leads alumni and philanthropic engagement with the College, and currently serves as Director of Advancement Services and Prospect Management. Additionally, she serves as president of the Bennington County Coalition for the Homeless.

Shannon Schmutz

Shannon completed her undergraduate work at Central Michigan University studying Public Health and Ethics. She then went to the University of Utah to earn her Masters of Education with an emphasis in Student Affairs. She now works at Southern Vermont College as the Civic Engagement Coordinator and Residence Director. She helps create opportunities for students to get involved in the community to spark an interest in being more engaged with the community they are a part of in Bennington.

Robert Ransick

Robert Ransick is an artist, designer and educator. His creative work has been exhibited in both national and international venues including Eyebeam Center for Art and Technology, Exit Art, Storefront for Art and Architecture, The New Museum and at the Palazzo delle Esposizioni in Rome, Italy, among others. He holds a BFA in Photography, with honors, from the School of Visual Arts, an MA in Media Studies from the New School for Social Research and an MBA in Sustainability from Bard College. He is a full-time faculty member at Bennington College where he teaches digital arts and social practices in the arts. Ransick divides his time between New York City and Bennington, VT.