

G A L L E Y

One wonders, rather, the point of the pseudo-advertisement and the cards on the Independents' bulletin board -- surely the people on campus who are so discriminating as not to endorse either candidate can find more constructive ways to make known their viewpoints. If there is a valid reason for this, we would appreciate it if it were more generally known.

L.S.