BENNINGTON, Vt. -- A show of paintings by the late Milton Avery will open Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. in the Carriage Barn at Bennington College. The public is invited.

Milton Avery, who died in 1963, was an important artist, as well as an influence on contemporary color painters such as Adolph Gottlieb and Mark Rathko. The paintings are some of the last major works he produced and belong to Mrs. Sally Avery. These paintings (1953-63) will soon be included in a major retrospective that will travel throughout America.

The show will be open weekdays 10-4 p.m. and weekends 1-4 p.m.
