JUDSON DANCE

Carolee Schneemann will not be performing "Newspaper Event," (1963, above with Ruth Emerson) but she will be doing "Lateral Splay" (also 1963) at the two-part Judson Dance Theater Reconstruction concerts, April 15 through 18. The inaugural dance performances are at the renovated St. Mark's Church. The concerts are a benefit for Danspace and the Bennington College Judson Project, and are the second half of a program recognizing the twentieth anniversary of the Judson Dance Theater concert at Judson Memorial Church.

"Judson Dance Theater: 1962-1966," an exhibition of photographs, video, scores, music and memorabilia (from which the above photo, by Al Giese, is taken) was held at the Gallery this January and February. Also presenting work at the April concerts will be Lucinda Childs, Remy Charlip, Brian dePalma, Judith Dunn, Simone Forti, Deborah Hay, Ray Johnson, Steve Paxton, Yvonne Rainer, Elaine Summer and many more. For more information, please contact Cynthia Hedstrom at Danspace: 674-8112.
