DO WOMEN GET WHAT THEY DESERVE?

Tonight, at 9:00 o'clock in Commons Lounge, the College will tape a radio broadcast for Mutual Network. A panel made up of Mrs. Clarence Howard, State President of the League of Women Voters, Gene Baro and Mrs. DeGray will discuss the question "Do Women get what they deserve?"

An audience, to the seating capacity of the lounge, is invited from the College community. There will be a question period as part of the half-hour show. Certain students will be given prepared questions as a hedge against silence, but general questions are urged from those people seated within the range of the microphone.

During the broadcast the doors to the lounge will be locked and the immediate area outside the doors patrolled to prevent Halloween noises from being recorded with the program. Your cooperation is begged.

Those who wish to attend the broadcast are asked to arrive at 8:50 so that everyone will be settled down and coached before the taping begins.
