McDONALD v. CHICAGO

GUNS AND THE LAW

A PANEL DISCUSSION

Monday, November 8, 2010

7:30 pm • Bennington College • Greenwall Workshop • VAPA

Recent Supreme Court decisions on the right to bear arms—District of Columbia v. Heller and McDonald v. Chicago—focused attention on what has long been one of this country's most intractable and contentious issues. Its implications are constitutional, ethical, practical, and legal.

Recognizing that the police are the most directly and profoundly affected by this decision, the Four College Issues Forum has invited a group of police officers from a variety of settings—local and non-local, rural and urban—to discuss the ramifications of these decisions.
