

COLLEGE WEEK

Weekly announcements for the Bennington College Community

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

November 2 to
November 11

VOL. LXXXVII NO. 7

Friday, November 2

- 12 noon- 1 p.m. Linen service. Darien Fitzgerald; coordinator.
Commons Lounge.
- 2 p.m. Drew Smith of Crossroads Africa will discuss his program with prospective students. For more information, go to Barn 44. Student Placement Office.
- 3 p.m. Meeting of students interested in joining an anorexic or bulimic support group. Psychological Counseling Service.
- 4 p.m. - 6 p.m. Workshops on the Alexander Technique, Session I.
Taught by June Ekman. See also sessions offered tomorrow. VAPA, Room E320.
- 8 p.m. *Student Dance Concert. "Min Tech." Martha Hill
Dance Workshop.

Saturday, November 3

- 10 - 11:30 a.m. Workshops on the Alexander technique. See above description. Session IA. See also session below.
VAPA, Room E320.
- 11:30 a.m.- 1 p.m. Workshops on the Alexander Technique. Session II.
Taught by June Ekman. VAPA, Room E320.
- 1:30 p.m. *Alcoholics Anonymous Meeting (A.A.). Dickinson 117.
- 8 p.m. *Counting the Ways by Edward Albee. Directed by David Bell with *Karyna Heffernan and Charlie Zeleny. Costumes designed by Emily Dennis and set designed by Danielle Etzler. VAPA D207.
*In partial fulfillment of B.A. degree.
- 8 p.m. Student Dance Concert. "Min Tech." Martha Hill.

EVENTS ASTERISKED* ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC AS WELL
AS THE CAMPUS COMMUNITY.

9 p.m. *Film. Lightning Swords of Death (Mad Max).
Tishman Theatre.

10 p.m. Coffeehouse: The Baby Watson Brothers perform
30s and 40s swing music from jazzmen like Fats
Waller and Duke Ellington to Irving Berlin and George Gershwin. New Dining Room.

Sunday, November 4

8 p.m. *Counting the Ways by Edward Albee. Se Saturday announcement for description. VAPA D207.

8 p.m. *Student Dance Concert. "Min Tech." Martha Hill.

8 p.m. *Film. Lightning Swords of Death (Mad Max).
Tishman Theatre.

Monday, November 5

6 - 7 p.m. Aerobic and Jazzercise Class. Instructors: Kate
Aichele and Naomi Given. Newman Court.

7 p.m. *Social Science Film. The Organizer. Marcello
Mastroianni stars as a gentle, professional labor organizer who leads a strike by a group of 19th century textile workers in Turin, Italy, as they rebel against a 14-hour work day, low wages and a high accident rate. Outstanding performance by Mastroianni in a film which has won many international awards.
Italian with English subtitles. Req. of "Work in Society" students. 126 min. long. Tishman Theatre.

8 p.m. *Counting the Ways by Edward Albee. See description in Saturday entry. VAPA D207.

8 p.m. *"Resolved: Reaganomics should be given four more years." A debate presented by students currently studying the Reagan administration's economic policies.
Barn 1.

Tuesday, November 6

7 a.m. Today is election day. Consult the "notices" section of College Week and the mailroom bulletin board for transportation information.

4 p.m. *Home Volleyball game. Bennington vs. Hampshire.
Commons Lawn.

6 - 7 p.m. Aerobic and Jazzercise Class. Instructors: Kate
Aichele and Naomi Given. Newman Court.

- 8 p.m.           *Art division Lecture. Richard Hennesy, painter and writer from New York City, will show slides of his work and read portions of his recent article, "Tunnel Vision at M.O.M.A.: Mean Rooms," scheduled to appear in The New York Review of Books, Christmas Issue. Mr. Hennesy has exhibited his paintings at the Robert Miller Gallery, Tibor de Nagy, and the Hamilton Gallery in New York as well as inclusion in "Paintings of the 80's," curated by Barbara Rose. Barn 1.
- 8 p.m.           *The Black Music Division presents it Fall Concert Series beginning today and running through Saturday, Nov. 10. In addition, the works of artist Albert Peters will be displayed in Paul Robeson House gallery through Nov. 10. The art opening will take place after the first concert tonight. Gallery hours are 1 p.m. - 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. Tonight, Milford Graves, a percussionist and Bennington College faculty member and guest musicians will perform. Paul Robeson House.
- 9:15 p.m.       *Film. Fanny and Alexander (Films Inc.). Tishman Theatre.
Wednesday, November 7
- 1 p.m.           Community Life Meeting. Green Dining Room.
- 3 p.m.           House Chairpersons meeting. Leigh Living Room.
- 8 p.m.           *"The Nature of the Child." Lecture by Jerome Kagan, professor of Developmental Psychology at Harvard. Will speak on temperament, continuity, and discontinuity in child development. Sponsor: Social Sciences. Barn 1.
- 8 p.m.           *Carolyn Crossett Rowland Photography Lecture by Olivia Parker, photographer. Tishman Theatre.
- 8 p.m.           *Fall Concert Series of Black Music Division. Marco Enéidi, alto saxophonist and Bennington College faculty member, and guest musicians. Paul Robeson House.
- 8:15 p.m.       *Literature and Languages Divison-sponsored reading by John Bart Gerald. Mr. Gerald, a current member of the faculty, is a noted author of novels and short stories. He is also co-owner and editor of Authors and Artists, a small press publisher. He will be reading from his works: Lecture for Nonconformists, Conscience and other poems and short stories. His work has been published by Farrar, Straus & Giroux and Viking Press. His stories have also appeared in many eminent magazines. Barn 1.

9:15 p.m.      *Film. Fanny & Alexander. (Films Inc.) Tishman Theatre.

Thursday, November 8

8 p.m.      *Fall Concert Series of Black Music Division. Arthur Brooks, musician-composer and Bennington College faculty member, and guest musicians. Paul Robeson House.

Friday, November 9

12 noon -
- 1 p.m.      Linen service. Darien Fitzgerald, coordinator. Commons Lounge.

3 p.m.      Students interested in joining a support group for anorexia and bulimia will have a meeting. Psychological Counseling Service.

8 p.m.      *Butley, a play in two acts by Simon Gray. Also, Victoria Station, a one act play by Harold Pinter. Music directed by Jeff Taylor. Also on Nov. 10, 11. Facsimile Theatre.

8 p.m.      *Fall Concert Series of Black Music Division. Kunto: with Jimmy Stewart, musician and composer from Philadelphia. Paul Robeson House.

9 p.m.      *The Dance Division presents See of Ice, Sea of Eyes. A collaboration--Emma Fried and Sharon Milan. Also on Nov. 10 at 7:30 p.m. and 9 p.m. VAPA Studio E303.

Saturday, November 10

1:30 p.m.      *Alcoholics Anonymous meeting (A.A.). Dickinson 117.

7:30 p.m. &
9 p.m.      *Dance Division presentation. See of Ice, Sea of Eyes. See above description. VAPA studio E303.

8 p.m.      *Butley and Victoria Station. See above description. Facsimile Theatre.

8 p.m.      *Fall Concert Series of Black Music Division. Bill Dixon, musician-composer and Bennington College faculty member, and guest musicians.

9 p.m.      *Killer's Kiss (MGM). Film. Tishman Theatre.

10 p.m.        Coffeehouse: Joy Spring Quintet will be performing original straight ahead jazz from their three record albums. Please note--this Coffeehouse will take place in Greenwall--VAPA--not the Dining room.

Sunday, November 11

8 p.m.        *Butley and Victoria Station in Facsimile Theatre.

8 p.m.        *Film. Killer's Kiss (MGM). Tishman Theatre.

NOTICES

November 6 is election day! Transportation will be provided to the polls. To North Bennington Fire Station for those students living in campus houses, Cricket Hill and the Orchard. To St. Francis De Salles Parish Center for those living in the President's House, Faculty Row, Shingle Cottage, Ludlow and Brooder. Student Services will provide a van to accommodate students on the regular Tuesday run. Martha Whitman will use the the Early Childhood Van for additional services. Also, consult the mailroom bulletin board for further information.

Attention All Vermont Voters: The Board of Civil Authority has ruled that residents of all College student houses, Cricket Hill and the Orchard will vote in the Fire House of N. Bennington. Residents of Shingle Cottage, the President's House, Ludlow, Brooder and Faculty Row will vote at St. Francis de Salles Parish House on W. Main Street in Bennington. Polls open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., November 6.

The library has a new photocopying machine downstairs. Copies are still $.10 but this machine takes quarters, dimes and nickels and gives change. Be sure to bring coins as we will no longer be making change. The old machine will now be used by the staff. Reference service is available on weekends (12-5) as well as Monday and Wednesday nights from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

A new exhibit will be on display in Usdan Gallery. Fabric Collages by Jack Moore can be viewed. Mooore, a dancer, choreographer and teacher has been on the Bennington College faculty since 1961. A print-maker and water colorist as well as collagist, Jack studied with Mauricio Lasansky at the University of Iowa. He is represented in the permanent collection of the Brooklyn Museum. His works have also been exhibited at various other galleries in the Northeast. Moore has perform-d with major dance companies, including Martha Graham, Merce Cunningham and Anne Sokolow. He is one of the founders of the Dance Theatre Workshop in New York and co-director of Nimbus Dance. He has taught at Connecticut College, UCLA, Julliard & Adelphi. The Gallery is open daily, Mon.-Fri. because 1 & 5 p.m.

OFF-CAMPUS EVENTS

Flute and piano concert by Andrew Bolotowsky and Rein van der Linde Thursday, Nov. 8 at 8 p.m. at Summer Sonatina, 5 Catamount Lane in Old Bennington. Program includes Beethoven, Schubert and Liszt. Tickets are $5, $3 for students. Proceeds to Summer Sonatina Scholarship Fund. Call 802-442-9197 for reservations.

Lecture, "Socially Responsible Investing," on Nov. 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Second Congregational Church in Bennington. 442-8787.