FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM COMMITTEE

There will be a meeting on Tuesday, November 13th, at 7:30 p.m. in Leigh House to discuss the coming Non-Resident Term.

We're planning to talk about: how to make a "dull" job interesting; how you can obtain a job after arriving home at Christmas time; paid jobs versus volunteer ones; jobs in the performing arts; and many other topics.

Come and bring your ideas-- and questions, if you have any. Everybody is welcome. This meeting is for you.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 22nd, will be a holiday, but classes will be held on Friday and Saturday as usual.

On Thanksgiving day meals will be served according to the Sunday schedule with Thanksgiving dinner at 4:30 p.m.

Students are reminded that classes before and after vacations are not to be cut unless for valid and extremely important reasons.

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICENational Teacher Examinations

Any seniors who are considering the field of teaching should read the notice on the Barn Bulletin Board of the National Teacher Examinations. Some schools will accept candidates without experience or special teacher training courses if they pass this examination.

FROM THE HEALTH SERVICE

We have a strong feeling that there are 1199 stray medicine bottles around Campus that we could use in the Health Service.
