SOCIAL SCIENCE WORKSHOP

Tuesday      8:00 p.m.      Franklin Living Room

"HOW SHALL WE EVALUATE BENNINGTON?"
The College is planning to undertake a project of self-evaluation in the near future. The Social Science Workshop will meet on Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. in Franklin Living Room for the purpose of discussing this project. The meeting will focus on two general problems: "Which aspects of the overall Bennington program should be studied?", and "What concepts and methods should be used?" The discussion will be led by Mr. Brockway; Mr. Hanks and Mr. Adelson will present alternative project plans.

Since the topic is of general interest it is hoped that Faculty and students of all divisions will attend and contribute to the discussion.

FROM THE ART DIVISION

Exhibition of Children's Art

Currently exhibited on the third floor of Commons (both sides of the Theatre) are examples of work done by children at the Hoosick Falls grade and High schools under the direction of Mr. Richard Comins.

Members of the Workshop in Art Teaching visited the High School last Thursday, brought back the examples of work now shown and arranged the display.
