To Whom It May Concern:

S.E.A., Thank you so much for supporting my work this term. The concert was well attended. From all the feedback I have received, the performance was a valuable experience for all involved. As a result of this initial collaboration, Kelly, Rainey and myself have been booked for festivals in Boston and NYC in the coming months. None of this would have been possible without your support!

Enclosed is a CD document of the performance and a flyer.

Looking forward,

"(Nmperign's) attention to the architecture of improvisation, control over a huge palette of sonic material, and ability to explore the extremes of music-making with subtlety and wit mark them as two of the most original thinkers in free improvisation today." Ed Hazel, Boston Phoenix
