

RUTH DEWING EWING '37 LECTURE

WHAT TRANSPIRES NOW:

Transgender History and the Future We Need

Professor Susan Stryker

THURSDAY, MAY 3, TISHMAN AUDITORIUM

6:00 PM: SCREENING OF
SCREAMING QUEENS: THE RIOT AT COMPTON'S CAFETERIA (2005)

8:00 PM: EWING LECTURE,
“WHAT TRANSPIRES NOW: TRANSGENDER HISTORY AND THE FUTURE WE NEED”

SUSAN STRYKER

is an award-winning scholar and filmmaker whose historical research, theoretical writing, and creative works have helped shape the cultural conversation on transgender topics since the early 1990s. Dr. Stryker earned her Ph.D. in United States History at the University of California-Berkeley in 1992, later held a Ford Foundation/ Social Science Research Council post-doctoral fellowship in sexuality studies at Stanford University, and has been a distinguished visiting faculty member at Harvard University, Macquarie University in Sydney, Simon Fraser University in Vancouver, and the University of California-Santa Cruz.

Stryker is currently an Associate Professor of Gender and Women's Studies at the University of Arizona and coordinator of the university's Transgender Studies Initiative. In addition to serving as founding co-editor of the academic journal TSQ: Transgender Studies Quarterly, she is currently developing several media projects, and has a book under contract to Farrar Straus Giroux, What Transpires Now, about the uses of transgender history for the present.

BOTH EVENTS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

This event is co-sponsored by Williams College as well as the following programs at Bennington College: Society, Culture & Thought, Center for the Advancement of Public Action, Drama, Literature, and Visual Arts