

Bennington College Lecture Series, 1934-35. A Series of Evening Meetings on Liberalism.

The following are abstracts of papers presented:

Mrs. F.J. Sheed. "Liberalism in Religion."

Theodore Newcomb. "Psychology, Mental Hygiene, and Freedom."

John Dewey. "Philosophical Background of Liberalism."

Alvin Johnson. "Liberalism." (two papers with this title)

George Soule. "Liberalism."

Elmer Davis. remarks.

Walter D. Fletcher. "Conservatism and the New Deal."

John Goodall Hutton. "Socialist Views on the Coming Election."

Schuyler Wallace. "The Coming Elections from the Point of View of the Roosevelt Administration and the New Deal."

James L. McCamy. "Facts of Election."

Lewis Mumford. "The Relation of Art in its Broadest Sense to Present Day Society in America."

Morris Ernst. "Freedom of Speech and the American Tradition."

(There are two copies of each abstract)