STERLING AND FRANCINE CLARK ART INSTITUTE EXHIBITION THROUGH November 30th. "Darkness Visible": The Prints of John Martin. John Martin (1789-1854) was an extremely popular British landscape painter who took up printmaking to further his success. His use of mezzotint, perfect for strong tonal contrasts, heightened the drama typical of his paintings. A catalogue will be available. The catalogue and exhibition are supported by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

A T T E N T I O N A L L M U S I C I A N S ! ! ! ! ! !
We want to help you! The Woolley Fund would like to help sponsor you in a project of your choice. Woolley Fund is an organization which gives grants to music projects that enrich the present music projects that enrich the present music program in both the college and community. If you are involved in such a project and need financial assistance, submit a letter, in writing, stating clearly your project, what you hope to achieve, how the money will be spent, and how the project will benefit the college and community. The maximum size of a grant given to individuals is $150. Six grants are available this term. The deadline is December 1, 1986. Brochures describing the Woolley Fund plus tips on how to write your grant proposal are available from Sue Jones, the Music Division secretary.
