

For The Bennington Evening Banner - June 2, 1941.

~~BENNINGTON~~ COLLEGE - BENNINGTON, VERMONT.

---

For immediate release.

Bennington College is now holding an exhibit of contemporary American Negro Art done by the artists from Karamu House in Cleveland, Ohio. This association was started with the purpose of developing and directing the cultural contributions of the Negro race. The work consists of etchings, woodcuts, lithographs, aquatints and drawings. It will run through June 7 and is being held in the Halls of the Theatre on the third floor of the Commons Building.