

SEPC Minutes

October 15, 2004 – the vandalism discussion

General Notes

- Ava Heller has stepped out of her position as Dance SEPC rep. Anyone interested in filling this position should come to our meeting on Tuesday in Barn 206 at 12:00.
- Rachel Schirk, the Recent Graduate Trustee will begin her two year term beginning fall 2005 because she is currently an employee of the College. This will not affect the class of 2005 position.
- Come to the library review meeting, tomorrow, Mon. at 5:00 in the Upstairs Café. Pizza will be provided.

Discipline Updates

IKCLC: Come watch French Movies at 9:00 in Barn 100 on Thursdays.

Media Studies: Your very own Head of Judicial, Heather Burns, will give the Media Studies Lecture this Thursday @ 7:30, Barn 100. Her topic is "Leather Jackets and Black Lipstick: The music Counter-Culture."

Visual Arts: Junior Review will happen October 26, 27, and 28.

Music: Jennings library evaluation surveys are available on the table in the entryway. Please take a second to voice your opinion.

Science and Math: James Moore will give a talk: "R.A. Fischer-A faith fit for eugenics" on Tuesday, Oct. 19 @ 7:30 in the Dickinson Reading Room. Katie Stoop will lecture on Newts on Friday, Oct. 29 1:00 in the Reading Room. Anyone interested in chemistry & biology tutoring should contact Rep. Stoop(x4759). Friday Oct. 29, Jason Zimba will be giving a talk in Williams called "Go Pistons! Ideal Gasses and Ultra-fast transformations." Transportation Available. Dr. Zimba is also in the process of preparing a grant to outfit our school with a state-of-the-art Scientific computing center for theoretical physics. Anyone interested in voicing feedback or reading the grant proposal should contact SEPC Reps. This would provide some G5 computers and software licenses for the spring term.

Drama: SEPC reps. are trying to replace the pictures hanging in the hallway outside D207. Drama Collective has a budget for guest artists. Any opinions should go to the Collective.

Literature: A literature news bulletin board has been hung at the top of the President's staircase, opposite Charlene's office.

Dance: No Update.

Social Science: Are you passionate, want to hang out with others, come to Colloquium! Mon. 6:30 U-café.

CCT: No Update.