Dance Committee

Formal Dance December 6, 1941: The dance will cost $2.00 for a couple, $.65 for each stag. Ticket arrangements will be made in each House by the dance representative. This year an attempt will be made to induce more of the faculty to attend the dance. They will be invited as guests of the student body. No students may go unescorted.

Entertainment Committee

Beer Party December 5, 1941: By 5 pm Tuesday Joan Bayne must know from Council members' House reports just how many people are planning to go to the party. It will be held in the Center diningroom. There will be red and white checked table cloths. Tables will be pushed back to afford room for dancing. Ray Malon will not be able to dance. Joan Stokes will sing and may bring some of the Williams singers with her. A $.05 admission ticket will buy a coke, a $.10 ticket will buy a beer. The party will begin at 8:45.

Cocktail Parties December 6, 1941: These will be held in the Houses before dinner or the Formal dance. Elizabeth Walsh will ask the faculty to come, and will let the people responsible for the parties know so that they may invite those who respond in the affirmative. There will be four parties divided in the following manner as to Houses.

1. Woolley, (Canfield, Dewey, Booth) (Rosamund Reed
Patricia Newman)
2. Swan (Nell Hall, Joan Bayne)
3. Stokes-Sanford, Franklin
4. Kilpatrick, Welling, Bingham, McCullough.

Miss Foresman will post a reservation and guest sign-up slip on the bulletin boards.

Respectfully submitted,

Annette Kolin
