

CARRIAGE BARN CONCERT SERIES

spring 2018

Fragility: An Exploration of Polyrhythms

Wednesday, April 18 | 8:30 pm
VAPA Martha Hill Dance Theater

"Fragility" is a work-in-progress that mines the dimensions of rhythm through music, dance, physics and technology. Composer/drummer Susie Ibarra is joined by choreographer/dancer Souleymane Badolo in live experimentation, with multi-channel surround sound and custom-built motion capture software.

Michael Chinworth '08 in the Fireplace Room

Thursday, April 19 | 7:30 pm
Deane Carriage Barn, Fireplace Room

With his voice and Fender Rhodes, alum and current faculty member Michael Chinworth '08 performs original songs and elegantly rendered covers.

All Mozart Concert

Tuesday, April 24 | 8:30 pm
Deane Carriage Barn

This all-Mozart concert—performed by Music faculty members John Kirk, Yoshiko Sato, and Kaori Washiyama, with Tony Lu '18—features transcriptions and arrangements from music originally composed by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart in various chamber music settings.

Istanbul 2018: A Concert of Music from Turkey by David's Harp

Thursday, May 3 | 7:00 pm
Deane Carriage Barn

Philadelphia-based ensemble David's Harp presents music of contemporary Istanbul. Driving folk, haunting ballads, spirited dance tunes, and gritty songs of conflict and the struggles of urban life embody the cultural and musical richness of this cosmopolitan city on two continents.

Yoshiko Sato and Tony Lu in Concert

Saturday, May 19 | 7:00 pm
Deane Carriage Barn

Yoshiko Sato and Tony Lu '18 present an arrangement of Schumann Piano Quintet and Childhood Scenes on two pianos.

Nathaniel Parke and Tony Lu in Concert

Wednesday, May 30 | 8:30 pm
Deane Carriage Barn

Preludes, Songs and Brahms for Cello and Piano - Nat Parke and Tony Lu '18 continue their collaboration and present their arrangements of various famous works originally written for other instruments. This concert features transcriptions of Shostakovich preludes, Poulenc songs, and the great Brahms Violin Sonata in D minor.

BENNINGTON COLLEGE

All concerts are free and open to the public.