

A Continuous Whole: The 25th Anniversary of VAPA

April 20, 2001

4:30 pm

VAPA D-204

VAPA

Moderated by Elizabeth Coleman, President Bennington College

Panel Discussion Participants

ELIZABETH MILLS BROWN '39

The author of several books and articles on architecture including the 700-page Connecticut volume of Buildings of the United States.

ALLAN TEMKO

Pulitzer Prize-winning architecture critic emeritus of the San Francisco Chronicle. Former advisor to President John F. Kennedy.

DONALD SHEREFKIN

Bennington faculty member; former director of IIT Architects, Chicago. Has taught at Parsons School of Design and Illinois Institute of Technology.

ROBERTSON WARD

Principal architect, Bennington College Visual and Performing Arts Center (VAPA). Research Affiliate, Department of Architecture and Director of Research Programs at MIT.

KYU SUNG WOO

Principal architect of Bennington's new student-housing project. Designed the athletes' housing for the 1988 Seoul Olympic Village and the Metropolitan Museum of Art's Korean galleries.