		****															****
			T	H	E	C	0	L	L	Е	G	E	W	Е	E	K		*****	******
		****															****

Published and distributed every Tuesday to the Bennington College community. October 28, 1953 Vol. XXV, No. 8

SCHEDULE OF MEETINGS

Thursday	7:40 p.m.	Canfield Living
	1	Room

Administrative Workshop

Saturday	7:35 p	·M·	Theatre
Movie,	"Julius	Caesar"

Tuesday 8:00 p.m. Carriage Barn

*Chester Bowles - "Wanted: An American Policy for Asia"

*General Meeting

* * * * *

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

Will students please come in and report on their job hunting activities over long weekend. The Non-Resident Term Office will appreciate hearing about any interesting job possibilities which might be followed up.

Any student interested in working as a representative for a world-wide travel agency, please contact Mrs. Miller in the Non-Resident Term Office.

*

DRAMA WORKSHOP

Friday 8:15 p.m. Theatre

In answer to the many requests of those who were unable to attend or had to leave early during last Monday's Drama Workshop, a repeat performance of the dramatic reading of the play, "DRAGON'S MOUTH", by Jacquetta Hawkes and J. B. Priestley, will be given.

The Community is cordially invited to attend.

N-O-T-I-C-E

Any students who ordered and paid for photographs of the Carnival last Spring, and who did not get the pictures, please notify the Public Relations Office.

* * * * *

FROM THE COOPERATIVE STORE

Exhibits:

Thurs., Oct. 29 - Drysdale's, clothing. Fri., Oct. 30 - Mrs. Vail, yarns.

MOV IES

General Stark Theatre, Bennington, Vt.

Wednesday-Thursday - "Torch Song" with Joan Crawford and Hichael Wilding.

Bennington Drive-In Theatre

Wednesday-Thursday - "Diplomatic Courier" with Tyrone Power and Patricia Neal. Also, "The Assasin" with Richard Todd and Eva Bartok.

Walden Theatre, Williamstown, Mass.

Wednesday-Thursday - "The Magic Box" with Robert Donat. Color by Technicolor.