

Beyond the Bubble

Bennington

The Belle of Amherst
April 1-3

Old Castle Theatre

This play delicately explores the life of America's greatest woman poet at various stages in her experience.

Show times are April 1 , April 2
7:30pm

Sunday April 3 · 2pm

Glenn Roth- Fingerstyle Guitar
April 30

1-3 pm

South Street Cafe

Independent Bookstore Day!
April 30

Bennington Bookstore

Raffles! Unique merchandise! Come downtown and support your local

North Adams/ Williamstown

Taylor Mac

April 9

4 - 10 pm

MASS MOCA

The theater artist presents a work-in-progress performance of the latest installment from his 24-Decade History of Popular Music, an outrageously entertaining romp through 240 years of American culture as seen through music. The decades du jour are 1836-1896.

Artist Talk with Nick Cave

April 12

5pm

MASS MOCA

Hear Cave share his vision to convert our football field-size gallery into a seductive, performative gathering space, in dialogue with MASS MoCA curator Denise Markonish.

Debo Band

April 16

8 pm

MASS MOCA

The eleven-piece Debo Band expands upon the repertoire of Ethiopia's golden era of Afro-pop.

Indigo Resist Dyeing Open Studio

April 15

7 - 9 pm

North Adams Makers' Mill

Class fee provides a simple introduction to Japanese resist dyeing (similar to tie dye) with natural Indigo, necessary supplies, and two 22" bandanas to practice dyeing techniques.

Against Titian

April 19

5:30 - 6:30 pm

The Clark

Stephen J. Campbell will present part of a work in progress on the geography of art in 16th century Italy. The focus will be on the conflicted reception of the work of the great Venetian painter Titian outside of his home city, tracing a general pattern of reaction to a perceived inscrutability and alienating character in Titian's works for Naples and Milan in particular.

Manchester

Poet Major Jackson

April 5

7 PM

Manchester Community Library
Jackson will discuss his newest collection, Roll Deep, and speak about the importance of poetry as it defines us as humans and serves as a record of our existence.

Use of Opiates in Vermont from 18th to early 20th Century

April 21

12 PM

Dorset Historical Society

Historian Gary Shattuck will give a PowerPoint presentation telling this story. Bring a sandwich; liquid refreshments and desserts served.

