To come visit Mr. Lundberg on Tuesday

September 19, 1934

Dr. John Dewey
320 East 72 Street
New York, New York

Dear Dr. Dewey:

Thank you for your note of September 18, accepting our invitation to speak here on October 15. I am delighted that this date is convenient for you.

You are right in thinking that the lectures are held in the evening. Usually they last forty-five minutes and are followed by a question and discussion period of half an hour or so. I will write you some time before the 15th in order to give you the details of time, trains, etc.

The students of Dewey House, which is named for you and your family, are very anxious to invite you to tea on the afternoon of the 15th. You will hear from them direct, and if you wish to accept, your train will have arrived in plenty of time--it gets in at about 2 o'clock daylight time.

We are all looking forward to your visit with great pleasure.

Sincerely yours,

Gladys Ogden Go
