FROM THE PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE

A series of ten weekly dance classes for children will be given at the College this spring. The classes for the five to seven year age group will meet on Tuesdays from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. in Jennings Hall, starting April 13th. The eight to eleven year group will meet on Friday afternoons at the Carriage Barn, with the first class on April 16.

Instruction will be in the free form of the modern dance, and will emphasize the development of control and coordination through the fundamentals of rhythmic movement. The classes will be taught by Suzanne Kaplan and Martha Haskell. The fee for the series of ten classes is $8.00. For further information, or to register a pupil, communicate with Suzanne Kaplan at the College.

WANTED - PHOTOGRAPHS:

by the Alumnae Office

Response to our request of two weeks ago has been regrettably small, and also indicates that most people think we only want landscapes. This is not the case. We are particularly interested in pictures of people and activities. Please show us what you have. We will pay $$$ for any we can possibly use.

FROM THE HEALTH SERVICE

We are listing the dispensary hours in case you have forgotten them, and we would appreciate, as always, your adherence to them except for emergency treatment. This is necessary because the infirmary patients require our attention during the remainder of the day.

Daily	8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
	1:30 p.m. - 4:45 p.m.
	7:15 p.m. - 7:45 p.m.

Saturday	10:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
	4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Sunday	11:00 a.m. - 12:00 Noon.
--------	--------------------------

For emergencies there is always someone on duty, and the easiest way to get attention is to use the phone and dial 255.
