

GRADUATE SCHOOL

SERIES 2015

Join Bennington faculty members to discuss the role graduate school can play in your career and in continuing the work of your Plan.

Conversation will be wide-ranging and driven by student questions, including discussion of :

- how to decide if grad school is right for you
- the impact of an advanced degree on your professional life
- determining the right time to apply
- selecting your program
- preparing a compelling application
- funding your degree

SOCIETY, CULTURE, AND THOUGHT

April 27 | 1:00 pm | Barn 240

SCIENCES, MATH, AND ENVIRONMENT

April 27 | 1:00 pm | Dickinson 232

LITERATURE

April 27 | 7:00 pm | Barn 124

DANCE

April 30 | 8:00 pm |
Martha Hill Dance Studio

LANGUAGES

May 4 | 7:00 pm | Barn 124

VISUAL ART

May 6 | 12:45 pm | Rear Crit Room

DRAMA

May 14 | 12:30 pm | VAPA D207

All students are invited to attend. Sophomores and juniors, in particular, are encouraged to participate, as an early exploration of graduate opportunities will inform your coursework, FWT choices, and summer plans.