

CONFERENCE ON MASCULINITY-FEMININITY

Friday, April 19 to Sunday, April 21, 1968

Bennington College

Friday      8:00 p.m.      Carriage Barn

Panel Discussion:      Masculinity-Femininity and the Arts

Participants:      Louis Calabro      Barbara Smith
                         Robert Cronin      Martha Wittman

Moderator:      Richard Tristman

Saturday      10:30 a.m.      Carriage Barn

Panel Discussion:      Biology and Culture: Where do the Chromosomes Stop and Society Take Over?

Participants:      Joanna Kirkpatrick      Fred Wohnus

Moderator:      Gerald Surette

2:00 p.m.      Carriage Barn

Lecture-Discussion:      "A Woman is Not a Statistic, Some Thoughts on the Individual" (the problems of identity) by Dr. Dorothy Zinberg, Harvard University

8:00 p.m.      Commons Theater

Movie:      Le Bonheur

9:30 p.m.      Carriage Barn

Dance:      Uncle Tom's Cabinet

Sunday      11:00 a.m.      Carriage Barn

Lecture-Discussion:      "Being Female in America Today: The Consequences of Cultural Images" by Dr. Cynthia Epstein, Columbia University

2:00 p.m.      Carriage Barn

Panel Discussion:      What Can Now be Said about the Education of the Sexes?

Participants:      Tordis and John Isselhardt
                         Susan and Neil Rappaport
                         Anna LaLande
                         Laurie Kohn

Moderator:      Margaret DeGray