

NEWS FROM BENNINGTON COLLEGE

BENNINGTON, VERMONT 05201
Public Relations Office
Telephone 802 442-5401 / Ext. 267

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bennington College Calendar

March 12-19, 1969

Wednesday, March 12, Carriage Barn, 8:15 p.m. Student Concert. Delegates to the 1969 Student Composers' Symposium, to be held at McGill University in Montreal, March 14, 15, 16, and 17, will give a concert featuring compositions by students Carolyn Bond, Olga Gussow, Gerry Kaplan, Elinor Siegel and Gail Swinnerton. The grand finale will be a "Fantastic Improvisation" performed by all ten delegates, including student composers, performers and faculty members, Frank Baker and Lionel Nowak.

Thursday, March 13, Dewey Living Room, 4:15 p.m. Social Science Workshop. Martin Sklar, a Ph.D. candidate in history at the University of Rochester will talk on "The 20th Century American Revolution." Mr. Sklar has taught at S.U.N.Y. at New Paltz and the New School in New York City.

Saturday, March 15, Commons Theatre, 9:00 p.m. Movie: "The Treasure of Sierra Madre."

Tuesday, March 18, Barn 1, 8:15 p.m. Art Lecture. William C. Lipke, professor of art history at Cornell University, will talk on "The History of Cubism."