

College Week

Cooper's Corner

Have questions? Ask Tina (tinacooper@bennington.edu).

Remember when Student Life sold popcorn for 50 cents on Friday afternoons? We're bringing it back, but now it's free! Here's the catch, you need to "like" the College Week Facebook page. We'll even give you a sweet College Week button.

From my corner to yours,

Field Work Term and Career Development

Cultural Bennington Arts Council

Bennington's new Arts Council (currently known as the Cultural Bennington Arts Council) is looking to invite 1-3 students from each of our three colleges - Bennington College, CCV, and SVC - to form a collaborative design team for the purpose of helping to brand our new organization. The end product would be: a new name, a logo, and possibly a motto or slogan.

The project would be done in three phases:

1. The drafting of 6-8 concept sketches that will be reviewed by a committee of professional artists & designers and narrowed down to the best two or three.
2. The selected designs would then be refined based on feedback and rendered into more polished versions
3. The best design will be chosen and final touches completed.

The finished design will be presented to the Arts Council (in industry-standard and edit-friendly formats) and a reception will be held to unveil the design and celebrate the student team's efforts. Each team member will be awarded a cash prize as well as gift certificates and vouchers from Bennington's arts & culture community. The current deadline is June 1, so it is critical that the team be formed as soon as possible.

Contact Michael Thomson (michaelthomson@bennington.edu) with any questions!

Please email all College Week submissions to collegeweek@bennington.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion the following week.

College Week

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Come to the Student Center this Monday, April 11 for the screening of Virunga hosted by the Language, Politics, and Identity class taught by Bryce Smedley. Virunga is a stunningly beautiful, environmental-based documentary which follows the lives of park rangers in Virunga National Park, and raises important questions on the linguistic and political aspects of war, genocide, environmental exploitation, and wildlife conservation, showcasing both the beauty and corruption found within human nature. Following the screening will be a Q&A with Joseph Kaleba, a resident of the Democratic Republic of Congo.

This Spring, Bennington College is inviting all declared candidates in the 2016 Vermont Gubernatorial Race to speak with the Bennington College community. Join us in the CAPA Symposium this Tuesday, April 12 from 12:45 to 1:45 pm to hear a talk by Peter Galbraith followed by a Q&A session.

Do you like the outdoors? Want to introduce new students to Bennington? Consider becoming a Pre-Orientation Leader! Applications are now available for the Fall '16 positions. Positions are available for backpacking, canoeing, and local farming trips. Stop by Student Life to pick up your copy. Applications are due by Tuesday, April 12 at 5:00 pm. Contact Michiel Considine (mconsidine@bennington.edu) with any questions

First Year Students! Interested in being an Orientation Leader? Applications are available in Barn 120 and are due by Tuesday, April 12 at 5:00 pm. Contact Danielle (danielledohaney@bennington.edu) if you have any questions.

The Fund for North Bennington is offering grants of up to $250 to students interested in developing projects that engage members of the community. Projects may be focused in the arts, sciences, social sciences or humanities, or may involve special events. Applications for the Spring are due by Friday, April 15 at 5:00 pm. Please see Noelle Murphy to discuss your project ideas and to learn more about the application process.

Interested in working as an Admissions Intern? We're hiring! Positions are available for Summer and Fall. Stop by Admissions to pick up an application. Contact Liam Daily (liamdaily@bennington.edu) or Selina Petschek (selinapetschek@bennington.edu) with any questions! Completed applications are due by Friday, April 15 at 5:00 pm.

All Ideas is a SEPC endeavor to create a space for students to publish short non-fiction works. For our pilot edition we are looking for pieces under 2000 words. Classwork relevant beyond the course and independent work including musical scores and scientific papers are welcome. Please send submissions to webbcrawford@bennington.edu by Wednesday, April 20.

Come together on Friday, April 22 from 1:00 to 5:00 pm in CAPA Symposium for "Debate to Dialogue: Listening to Understand." A half-day workshop for students, staff, and faculty at Bennington College. The goals of "Debate to Dialogue" are to introduce a model for moving from debate to dialogue about difficult or controversial topics, raise awareness of the prevalence and limitations of debate culture and practices, especially when diversity — of identities, perspectives, backgrounds, and experience — has the potential to produce conflict, provide an interactive, shared experience of sustained, respectful dialogue among students, staff, and faculty members. Two of the four hours will be spent in small cross-constituency groups. This workshop requires advance registration. Please email lydiabarrassard@bennington.edu no later than April 18 at 5:00 pm.

Croquet Tournament! Marlboro College has invited Bennington students to compete in their annual Croquet Tournament. Teams of 6-10 students (in matching costumes or uniforms!) will compete for prizes and glory. Tournament happens Friday, April 22 and Saturday, April 23. Email Michiel Considine if you're interested in putting a team together!

Environmental Studies is hosting Sarah Junkin-Woodward to speak about her work in sustainable development, education, and health care in Nicaragua on Monday, April 25 at 7:00 pm in CAPA Design Lab 1.

Join us on Saturday, April 30 for a four mile hike along the AT/LT route put together by Environmental Studies. The trip leaves from the Flagpole at noon. Contact Mary Morton (mmorton@bennington.edu) for more information or with any questions.

TAPA (Bennington Thrift Store) is now open! Hours are Monday/Wednesday/Friday from 12:00 to 2:00 pm and Saturday/Sunday from 12:00 to 3:00 pm. The 24 hour drop off window is available anytime, however, large items must be dropped off during business hours.

Dean X-change

Michael Cohen will be leaving his role as Director of Community Standards, spending the Fall term with the Arava Institute in Israel. Upon his return in Spring 2017, he will continue teaching conflict resolution courses for CAPA. We wish him well and are thankful for his continued contribution to the Bennington community. Student Life has launched the search for an Assistant Dean of Residential Life and Community Standards, expanding the role to bring housing program expertise as well as experience with student conduct. A search committee including Michael Cohen, Kate Child, Ray Stevens and students James Moore and Karen Trop will help bring a talented new member of Student Life whom we anticipate will build on the solid foundation that Michael constructed. Please stay tuned as we bring candidates to campus anticipated for May. For questions about this or any other Student Life related topic, please contact me at xeniamarkowitt@bennington.edu.

Bennington ACTS

How would you like to be engaged with the town of Bennington? Through coursework? An off-campus Federal Work Study position? A Bennington ACTS trip? Come by the Student Life Office to learn more! Michael Thomson, the Kilpatrick Fellow for Community Engagement, will hold open office hours every Friday from 2:30-4:00 pm to discuss how you could become more involved in the town of Bennington in whatever way suits you best. Check out the Bennington ACTS Facebook Group for updates.
