

Lorie Novak/Photographer

Tishman, Tuesday October 16, 7:30 PM.
Visual Arts Guest Lecture Series

Lorie Novak's photographs, installations, and web projects have been in numerous exhibitions including solo exhibitions at The International Center for Photography, NY; Center for Creative Photography, Tucson, AZ; The Museum of Contemporary Art, Chicago; the Houston Center for Photography; Breda Fotografica, the Netherlands; University Art Museum, California State University, Long Beach; Addison Gallery, Andover, MA; and Stanford University Art Museum.

Novak is Chair of the Photography and Imaging Department at NYU Tisch School of the Arts. She is also co-director of Urban Ensemble through which Tisch School of the Arts students engage in community-based arts projects, and she has initiated a community collaboration program in the Photography and Imaging Department. In addition, she is Affiliated Faculty at the NYU Center for Advanced Technology. Born in Los Angeles, Lorie Novak received a B.A. in Art from Stanford University and a MFA from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. She resides in Brooklyn, NY.

Her most recent project, Collected Visions, is currently on view at the Zilka Gallery at Wesleyan University and more information about her work can be found on-line at <http://cvisions.cat.nyu.edu/novak>.

Bennington College, Fall 2001