

Community Notice

Photographer Sally Mann, a former Bennington student now working in Lexington, Virginia will be offering a two-day workshop for photography students and others interested in the medium on Wednesday & Thursday, November 12 and 13.

Some of her work is now being exhibited at the Enjay Gallery, 35 Lansdowne Street, Boston. She is a participant in Image Continuum, a journal of photography and writing about the medium, now in its second volume; I.C. I & II are on reserve in the library.

Ms. Mann will present a platinum printing demonstration at 4:00 PM on November 12 in VAPA D106 (darkrooms). On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock we will be looking at and discussing her work & ideas about photography in the upstairs of the Galleria in VAPA.

[1975]