

The Director wants to thank the Drama Faculty for their support and encouragement, especially Tony Carruthers, Michael Giannitti, Liz Covey, David Groupé & Shannon Giannitti for their careful supervision and guidance of their students' work. Many, many thanks to Barbara Roan and Tom Farrell for their immeasurable and invaluable contribution to "Romantic". My heartfelt thanks to Francina Stewart for taking on this project, doing a splendid, gracious job and being wonderful to work with. Special thanks to Ashley Smith for making it so much easier for us. To Abe Ober, Nico Duncanson & Robyn Okrant - Thank you for your kind attention to endless details and making it all look simple and beautiful. My sincere thanks to Kate Cofrancesco, Doug Palardy and Stephanie Milhorn for wanting and making the actors look marvelous. Thank God for Jon Paine - and there was Light! To my actors and dancers, thank you so much for your talent, effort and integrity; and my final "merci" is to all the crews who have worked timelessly behind the scenes to make "Isn't It Romantic" a reality. Much love and many blessings.

The Set Designer wishes to thank Tony Carruthers, Robyn Okrant & Pete Seward. Special thanks to Clay Coyle for the restaurant flats.

The Lighting Designer wishes to thank Michael Giannitti, David Groupé, Harley Blake, Abe Ober and my excellent crew.

The Costume Designers would like to thank Liz Covey, the Director, cast and crew. Special thanks from: Doug to Sibyl, "The Family(s)," and Tweak for being there; Stephanie to Tara for begging and insisting on giving her work and everyone else who listened to constant complaining; Kate to Erica and Kelly for all the help.

The Technical Director would like to thank the Energizer Bunny (he keeps going and going and going...), my crew for putting up with the month-long lab, the Crayola kids, Chewbacca and especially Owen Harvey.
