

Sean Ring and Mary Gregg

Senior Concert

May 14, 2009

Air on the G string

Sara Lewis, piano

J.S. Bach

Partita no. 2 in d minor

V. Gigue

J.S. Bach

Nocturne in d minor

Sean Ring

Fiddle Medley

Ashokan Farewell

Kesh Jig, Morrison's Jig

Old South Waltz

Tipsy Gypsy

Wizard's Walk

Jay Unger

Traditional Irish Fiddle

Traditional American

David Grisman

Jay Unger

John Kirk, piano and guitar

Intermission

Norns' Song: Prediction of Ragnarök (2008)

Emily Call, violin

Mary Gregg, viola

Allie Polubiec, narration

Jen Schwartz, violin

Nari Seo, 'cello

Mary Gregg

Yggdrasil (2009)

Christine Lanza, flute

Yoshiko Sato, piano

Mary Gregg, viola

Mary Gregg

"On This Long Storm" (2008)

Jazmine Carroll, alto

Nick Brooke, piano

Mary Gregg
(Text Emily Dickinson)

"The Moon is Distant" (2008)

Jazmine Carroll, alto and Celtic harp

Mary Gregg
(Text Emily Dickinson)

Suite for Horn and Viola (2009)

I. Threads

II. Hunting

III. Lullaby

Tim Gregg, horn

Mary Gregg, viola

Mary Gregg

Thank You.....

Sean would like to thank the music faculty that have helped him through these four years: Allen Shawn and Nick Brooke, who taught him how to create the sound he wanted, Kenji Bunch who oversaw the late stages of the career in composition, John Kirk for the accompaniment and good times, and finally Kaori Washiyama for these four years of patient guidance. Special thanks also goes to Sara Lewis for sweeping in at the last minute to save the day.

Mary would like to thank Allie, Christine, Emily, Jazmine, Jen, Nari, and Yoshiko for their time, hard work, and enthusiasm; Allen Shawn for introducing her to composing; Nick Brooke for all his advising, guidance, and putting up with her; and her parents for their constant support and love, and for financing Bennington against their better judgment.