NOTICES

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE:

Permanent Job Opportunities:

The Frances W. Parker School of Chicago is seeking a person to teach a 9th. grade media course-photography and/or cinema and dance.

The Mt. Anthony Union High School of Bennington announces the following openings: a choral-general music teacher in 7th. and 8th. grades; a woodwind or brass teacher who would also have the responsibility to develop an elementary orchestra and band; a part-time high school dance teacher.

The Kingston, N.Y. consolidated school district is accepting applications for next year for a variety of teaching openings from graduates who only have a B.A. degree without any teaching experience. Offering $7350 salary.

The Non-Resident Term Office has further information on the above.

FROM THE CO-OP STORE:

Please pick up dividend money before you leave. Thank you.

FROM THE LIBRARY:

All library books are due in the library Monday, June 15th. or earlier if you are leaving campus before that date. It may be possible to obtain loan extensions for the completion of papers or for use over the summer. Arrangements for these extensions must be made through consultation with a member of the library staff.

Overdue library books constitute an obligation owing the college and will prevent a senior from graduating.

All seniors who expect to hand in their theses this spring should bring them to the library by June 10th.

Books missing and needed at the library:

Dalton - The Membranes

Furer-Haimendorf - Morals and Merits

Henderson - An Introduction to Haiku (needed for the reserve shelf)
