

KALOPSIA AIDS AWARENESS WEEK

Exhibit in the Student Center Mon, December 1st – Sun, December 7th

Mon, December 1st – Word AIDS Day & Art for Activism

One person contracts HIV every 10 ½ minutes in the United States. Please join us in creating portraits for Kalopsia's travelling AIDS exhibit in real time. Materials will be provided.

Student Center, 12pm-2pm & 5pm-7pm

Tues – The Biology of HIV & AIDS with Amie McClellan

A talk on how HIV & AIDS affect the body, followed by a Q&A.

EAC 1, 7pm-7:30pm

Wed – Addressing Race and Ferguson in the Bennington Bubble

44% of those contracting HIV are black men. In light of recent events in Ferguson, Kalopsia: CATA will be hosting a discussion on race and privilege as it relates to life at Bennington. #blacklivesmatter

Down Commons, 7pm-8pm

(Missed your chance to do a portrait? Stop by Studes 12pm-2pm!)

Thurs – "Alphabet Soup"

Eight students and faculty speak on their experiences with non-normative genders and sexualities.

Student Center, 7:30pm-9pm

Fri – AIDS in Dance: "Saliva" screening (and more TBD)

At the start of the epidemic, no one knew how HIV was contracted; this work explores the impact AIDS had on a contact-heavy art form.

Tishman, 7pm

Sat – ACT UP! presents: How to Survive a Plague

ACT UP! and Kalopsia screen How to Survive a Plague. There will be a talkback with ACT UP! and a Q&A following the movie.

Tishman, 8pm
