Recessional:

The Graduates march in procession to Commons Lawn where they receive their diplomas.

Informal reception on Commons Lawn for Graduates and their guests.

The Degree-Conferring Ceremony was fashioned by a student-faculty committee and President Robert Devore Leigh for the first Bennington graduation in 1936. The ceremonial nomination of candidates for degrees by the faculty and the ceremonial vote to award the degrees by the trustees have continued without change. Slightly varied versions of the President's remarks have not obscured the original intent of a ceremony that is brief, to the point, and dignified.
