

An Evening of Indian Classical Music with Veena & Devesh Chandra

Wednesday, April 19 | 8:00 pm | Dean Carriage Barn

Devesh's innovative and imaginative approach and Veena's mesmerizing sitar makes their performances enthralling to both Western listeners and Indian classical purists. Devesh's approach to the tabla is the confluence of all the unique influences of his upbringing. Devesh believes the tabla has the rare ability, as a percussion instrument, to very accurately convey a wide range of emotions. The power in Veena's sitar music is vitalizing and healing to the body, clarifying to the mind, and food for the soul. Listening to her magnificent, heavenly music on the sitar will not leave you untouched.
